

Lake County EQIP Ranking

Forest

|   |   |   |
|---|---|---|
| 1. Area offered has wooded acreage where livestock have direct access   | n | 0 |
| 2. Area being offered contains a "C or D" slope designation in the mapping unit symbol as shown on the field sheets of the published Soil Survey of Lake County, Indiana.                           | n | 0 |
| 3. Existing woods will be enlarged by 25% or more.  | n | 0 |
| 4. Area offered shares a common border with an area protected or preserved for wildlife or forestry or to a property owned by the county, state or federal government for the purpose of recreation | n | 0 |
| 5. Area is being offered into a contract for at least 5 years   | n | 0 |
| 6. Area is being offered into a contract for 10 years   | n | 0 |
| 7. Area offered contains exiting forestland that has not received a professional management plan  | n | 0 |

Low

0

Water Quality

|   |   |   |
|---|---|---|
| 1. Area is being offered into a contract for at least 5 years   | n | 0 |
| 2. Area is being offered into a contract for 10 years   | n | 0 |
| 3. Area offered contains a water body which appears as a blue symbol on the USGS Quadrangle map   | n | 0 |
| 4. Area offered has a pesticide loss potential for leaching or runoff of severe according to the FOTG on over 40% of the soil acreage                                     | n | 0 |
| 5. Area being offered contains land that is presently in a commodity crop as defined by FSA or a residue of that crop   | n | 0 |
| 6. Area being offered contains a "C or D" slope designation in the mapping unit symbol as shown on the field sheets of the published Soil Survey of Lake County, Indiana. | n | 0 |
| 7. Area offered contains a working or abandoned well(s) of any type   | n | 0 |

Low

0

EROSION

|   |   |   |
|---|---|---|
| 1. Area is being offered into a contract for at least 5 years   | n | 0 |
| 2. Area is being offered into a contract for 10 years   | n | 0 |
| 3. Area being offered has at least one intermittent stream type as shown on the field sheets of the published Soil Survey of Lake County, Indiana                         | n | 0 |
| 4. Area being offered contains land that is presently in a commodity crop as defined by FSA or covered by a residue of that crop  | n | 0 |
| 5. Area being offered contain at least one designated HEL field   | n | 0 |
| 6. Area being offered contain a soil with an I factor $\geq 134$  | n | 0 |
| 7. Area being offered contains a "C or D" slope designation in the mapping unit symbol as shown on the field sheets of the published Soil Survey of Lake County, Indiana. | n | 0 |

Low

0

LIVESTOCK

|  |   |   |
|--|---|---|
| 1. Area offered contains a water body which appears as a blue symbol on the USGS Quadrangle map  | n | 0 |
| 2. Area offered has animals in a confinement area with less than 90 days of manure storage capacity.   | n | 0 |
| 3. Area is being offered into a contract for at least 5 years  | n | 0 |
| 4. Area is being offered into a contract for 10 years  | n | 0 |
| 5. Offered pasture and hayland has a concentration of grazing animal units of $\geq 0.33$ / acre on soils with a "C or D" slope designation in the mapping unit symbol as shown on the field sheets of the published Soil Survey of Lake County, Indiana | n | 0 |
| 6. Offer has an area of wooded or wildlife land where livestock will be excluded.  | n | 0 |
| 7. Area offered has at least 1 non-farm residence within 1000 feet of the land offered with animals in a confinement or a concentration of $\geq 0.33$ grazing animal units / acre of pasture and hayland.   | n | 0 |

Low

0